Resellers & Agents One Source, Many Solutions

resellers

Concentric® provides reliable, scalable and secure web hosting, DNS, domains, and email services on our load-balanced, patented Clustered Hosting platform. We offer a range of Reseller Programs so individuals and organizations from web site designers to carriers, cable companies, and SMB service providers can partner with us to resell our services.

Sign Up to Become a Web Hosting Reseller

The Concentric Reseller Program is designed for businesses and individuals who want to offer their customers secure, reliable Unix and Windows hosting without managing their own servers. Concentric's Reseller program is perfect for independent web designers, web developers, consultants, network and IT VARs, small telco, and ISPs. Dedicated tools in the Reseller UI help you manage your accounts.

Our Single Account philosophy is an asset for Resellers. When you initiate an account, you can resell any combination of our domains, hosting and email, ecommerce, communications applications, or our enterprise solutions including Perimeter Email Protection (PEP), DNS Management Plans, and GroupWare.

Choose the program that best fits your service model and revenue goals.

- Reseller or Private Label Reseller, under your own brand
- Refer a Friend and earn $50
- Become an Affiliate and earn $70 for every new account
- Become an Agent to create an ongoing revenue stream

Concentric Reseller Program

Get all of the tools and applications your customers need – on a platform you can trust – with no contract or minimum commitment. Resell our Enterprise Service PEP (Perimeter Email Protection). Or, sign up with our Enterprise Service Corporate Domain Manager to help manage your clients' domains and DNS.

Our program is perfect for:

- Independent Web Designers and Consultants who need a secure, reliable host for their customers.
- Network and IT VARs serving small business networks looking for reliable hosting and add-ons to their low-end hosting capabilities
- Small telco and ISPs that want to bundle a hosting account with their services

You own the customer, we support you.

- We provide Tier 2 support to you, you provide Tier 1 support to your customers
 - Dedicated toll-free 24/7 Reseller Support number
 - Monthly reports detailing your customer's charges, add-ons, and services
 - New software features and upgrades at no additional cost to you
- Sign up online at www.concentric.com or call 866.500.9696 to sign up. After sign up, you will have instant access to your Reseller Master Account where you can create and manage your customer accounts. Once your customer account is set up, they can login to our Hosting Gateway to take advantage of Concentric WebMail and other easy-to-use hosting features.

You maintain control at all times — give your customers as much or little control over any account features as you choose.

Once a month we summarize all your customers wholesale fees and bill you. There is a minimum charge of $19.95/month, offset by the wholesale charges you incur. We also provide a detailed accounting of all wholesale fees. You set the pricing for your services.

To support you we also provide a detailed Reseller Guide, robust FAQs, and a full set of training materials to help you get familiar with our hosting platform.

Private Label Reseller Program

Concentric has a proven track record of providing Private Label Reseller hosting and managed business services for more than 10 years. Now, it is even easier and more profitable to offer these superior hosting services under your own brand.

Based on our Clustered Hosting architecture, our platform is more secure and reliable than traditional shared hosting, virtual private servers (VPS), or dedicated hosting. Our patented clustered technology includes not only hosting but also clustered email, DNS, and storage, offering virtually inexhaustible resources.

You get

- Private label, fully managed services, including platform, network, data center services, and security – at wholesale prices
- A master account to easily manage all your customers and their accounts
- Ability to let customers manage their own accounts, use WebMail, and access the FAQs and knowledge base – all under your brand
- A full suite of features including hosting, email, domains, DNS management, productivity tools and applications, GroupWare, ZenCart and OScommerce, Blogs, and Wiki –under your brand.
- New software features and upgrades at no additional cost

Cost Benefits

With Concentric you have an opportunity to create profit while providing proven hosting and managed business solutions to your customers. A Concentric account offers world-class service without draining precious time and resources.

- In-house solutions require in-house expertise, redundant systems, and the purchase of hardware, software, maintenance contracts, and upgrades.
- Collocation contracts require term commitments for energy and facility costs, plus the expense of in-house expertise, hardware, software, maintenance, and upgrades.
- Concentric's Private Label Reseller program provides the network, platform, data center, provisioning, and all upgrades to our platform and software – all for one, low wholesale price.
